TREASURE COAST REGIONAL PLANNING COUNCIL

MEMORANDUM

To: Council Members

From: Staff

Date: October 21, 2016 Council Meeting

Subject: Disclosure of Voting Conflicts on Consent Agenda Items

Introduction

Section 112.3143, Florida Statutes, requires Council members to abstain from voting on any matter that they know would inure to their special private gain or loss. “Special private gain or loss” means an economic benefit or harm that would inure to the Council member, his or her relative, business associate, or principal. Certain exceptions and caveats to this definition, may or may not apply in any given case. Specific questions regarding the existence of a voting conflict in any specific case should be discussed with General Counsel prior to the Council meeting whenever possible.

Consent Agenda Items are voted on in one motion since these matters are routine and non-controversial, and are typically handled in the same fashion on a regular basis. If any individual Council member has a voting conflict on a Consent Agenda item, the item should be removed from the Consent Agenda and handled separately to allow the affected Council member to vote on remaining Consent Agenda items with which there is no voting conflict.

When a voting conflict is identified on a Consent Agenda item, the Council member should publicly announce the nature of the conflict and have the item removed from the Consent Agenda to be handled separately. The rest of the Consent Agenda will then be moved with a single motion, as usual. Finally, the items that were removed from the Consent Agenda will be handled individually, with the affected Council member(s) abstaining.

As with all voting conflict scenarios, the Council member with the voting conflict must fill out Form 8B Memorandum of Voting Conflict for County, Municipal, and Other Local Public Officers, and submit that to Council staff to be appended to the meeting minutes (see attached).
