PALM BEACH COUNTY INTRACOASTAL WATERWAY CHARRETTE

The Palm Beach Metropolitan Planning Organization and the Treasure Coast Regional Planning Council invite all interested residents, property and business owners, and agency representatives to participate in a public design charrette (a series of public meetings) to create a vision and plan for the Intracoastal Waterway in Palm Beach County (see aerial photos below). The concerns and ideas you express during this event will be the basis for a comprehensive blueprint that will help guide development along and access to the Intracoastal for generations to come.

*Jupiter Inlet & Loxahatchee River
Interconnection with Intracoastal*

Intracoastal at Lake Worth Inlet near Peanut Island & Port of Palm Beach

Residential Neighborhoods along Intracoastal in South County

CHARRETTE PUBLIC WORK SESSION

*Friday, May 9th, 2008: 10 AM — 3 PM
Palm Beach Atlantic University
(Weyenberg Center)
(Southeast corner of Okeechobee Boulevard
& Olive Avenue, downtown West Palm Beach)
Refreshments and lunch will be provided*

Participants will be working with neighbors, property and business owners, and agency representatives along with a team of professionals on their vision for the Intracoastal. At the end of the day, citizens and owners will present their ideas for the future of the Intracoastal.

STUDIO

*Saturday, May 10th through Wednesday, May 14th
9 AM — 9 PM
Palm Beach Atlantic University
(Rinker 1310 Classroom)*

Public is invited to Studio to give additional input and view the on-going work. No appointment necessary.
